++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Turning cold tonight, then further showers tomorrow.

This Evening and Tonight:
The odd shower continuing throughout the evening and night as the cloud builds. The winds continue to ease, though possibly remaining breezy along some coastal areas. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Wednesday:
Another day of sunshine and showers, though generally fewer showers across Devon and Cornwall. Remaining unseasonably cold, with the risk of frost returning to more northern areas. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Thursday to Saturday:
Thursday mostly cloudy, with rain for a time towards the south coast. Friday mostly dry with sunny spells. Higher temperatures Saturday but affects negated by widespread rain and strong winds.
